

Capi, the airport retail brand of B&S Group, acquires two regional airport shops at key locations

Luxembourg, May 30, 2019

Capi-Lux (“Capi”), the airport retail brand of B&S Group, today announces the acquisition of two retail locations at regional airports in the Netherlands and Germany.

These locations, acquired from Chacalli De Decker, provide Capi the opportunity to further build its European footprint with its renewed regional travel airport concept that was recently launched at Eindhoven Airport.

The shops are located at Rotterdam The Hague Airport and Weeze airport and will be part of Capi’s retail store portfolio. This expansion in Capi’s portfolio is a logical step in its strategy to expand presence at regional airports with multi-category duty free stores that offer a varied assortment in perfumes and cosmetics, liquors, travel accessories, regional products and confectionary.

Peter Wiggers, Managing Director Capi: “By adding these stores to our current activities in the Netherlands and Germany, Capi has obtained a compact set of regional locations that supports its leading position in international airport retail. We welcome the new colleagues at both locations and are looking forward to a swift and successful transition.”
